

Present the Annual International Women's Day Peterborough Community Potluck and Panel Presentation

International Women's Day

The Art of Resistance

Thursday, March 8, 2018

Community Potluck 5:30 pm
Panel Presentation 6:30 pm
Seeds of Change, 534 George St. N., Peterborough/Nogojiwanong

Panel Presentation featuring:

Smokii Sumac, Panel Moderator, member of the Ktunaxa Nation,
Spoken Word Artist and Musician

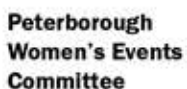

Nina Angela Mercer and Alexandria Smith,
Black Women Artists for Black Lives Matter, New York
Participation in partnership with the Aging Activism Conference

Niambi Leigh, Spoken Word Artist and Coordinator, Black Lives Matter Peterborough

with welcome by Chief Phyllis Williams, Curve Lake; Kim Muskratt and Suzanne Smoke, Hiawatha First Nation; with The Raging Grannies and Creating Space Community Art Studio.

Free, inclusive family-friendly event. Donations and potluck items welcome.

Thank you to our community of supporters:

For more information, visit:
kwic.info
kawarthasexualassaultcentre.com